

Investigations and Hearings Director Announces Retirement

For Immediate Release

THE STANDARD OF CARE.

(October 19, 2006) After 19 years of exemplary service to the College of Nurses of Ontario, Gail Siskind has announced her plans to retire at the end of April 2007.

As the Director of Investigations and Hearings, Gail has provided exceptional leadership and vision to the administration of the College's enforcement function and the pursuit of the College's vision of excellence in nursing practice. Her passionate pursuit of innovative approaches has built public confidence in the profession and ensured that nurses are treated fairly and have opportunities to improve their practice.

Ontario's regulatory framework has benefited immensely from Gail's contributions. A consummate teacher, Gail has generously shared her expertise and wisdom with College staff, regulatory colleagues, Council and Committee members, members of the public, members of the nursing and legal professions, and government stakeholders.

Opportunities to extend our gratitude to Gail and wish her well in her retirement are being planned for the New Year.
