Introduction

The College Performance Measurement Framework (CPMF)

The CPMF has been developed by the Ontario Ministry of Health (the ministry) in close collaboration with Ontario’s health regulatory Colleges (Colleges), subject matter experts and the public with the aim of answering the question “how well are Colleges executing their mandate which is to act in the public interest?” This information will:

1. Strengthen accountability and oversight of Ontario’s health regulatory Colleges;
2. Help Colleges improve their performance;

Each College will report on seven Domains with the support of six components, as illustrated in Table 1.

Table 1: CPMF Measurement Domains and Components

1	Measurement domains	?	Critical attributes of an excellent health regulator in Ontario that should be measured for the purpose of the CPMF.
2	Standards	?	Performance-based activities that a College is expected to achieve and against which a College will be measured.
3	Measures	?	More specific requirements to demonstrate and enable the assessment of how a College achieves a Standard.
4	Evidence	?	Decisions, activities, processes, or the quantifiable results that are being used to demonstrate and assess a College’s achievement of a standard.
5	Context measures	?	Statistical data Colleges report that will provide helpful context about a College’s performance related to a standard.
6	Planned improvement actions	?	Initiatives a College commits to implement over the next reporting period to improve its performance on one or more standards, where appropriate.

CPMF Model

The seven measurement domains shown in Figure 1 are the critical attributes that contribute to a College effectively serving and protecting the public interest. They relate to key statutory functions and organizational aspects that enable a College to carry out its functions well. The seven domains are interdependent and together lead to the outcomes that a College is expected to achieve as an excellent regulator. The fourteen Standards within the seven measurement domains are listed in Figure 2.

Domains	Standards
Governance	1. Council and statutory committee members have the knowledge, skills, and commitment needed to effectively execute their fiduciary role and responsibilities pertaining to the mandate of the College.
	2. Council decisions are made in the public interest.
	3. The College acts to foster public trust through transparency about decisions made and actions taken.
Resources	4. The College is a responsible steward of its (financial and human) resources.
System Partner	5. The College actively engages with other health regulatory Colleges and system partners to align oversight of the practice of the profession and support execution of its mandate.
	6. The College maintains cooperative and collaborative relationships responds in a timely and effective manner to changing public expectations.
Information Management	7. Information collected by the College is protected from unauthorized disclosure.
Regulatory Policies	8. Policies, standards of practice, and practice guidelines are based in the best available evidence, reflect current best practices, are aligned with changing public expectations, and where appropriate aligned with other Colleges.
Suitability to Practice	9. The College has processes and procedures in place to assess the competency, safety, and ethics of the people it registers.
	10. The College ensures the continued competence of all active registrants through its Quality Assurance processes. This includes an assessment of their competency, professionalism, ethical practice, and quality of care.
	11. The complaints process is accessible and supportive.
	12. All complaints, reports, and investigations are prioritized based on public risk, and conducted in a timely manner with necessary actions to protect the public.
	13. The College complaints process is coordinated and integrated.
Measurement, Reporting and Improvement	14. The College monitors, reports on, and improves its performance.

The CPMF Reporting Tool

The College Performance Measurement Framework (CPMF) continues to serve as a cornerstone for regulatory transparency and excellence. In the fourth iteration, the CPMF will help provide the public, the Ministry of Health, and other stakeholders with critical insights into the activities and processes of health regulatory Colleges.

For the 2023 reporting cycle, the focus remains on fostering an environment of continuous improvement. The information gathered through the CPMF Reporting Tool is intended to spotlight areas for enhancement, prompting closer attention and potential follow-up actions. As in the past, the Ministry will not assess whether Colleges meet or do not meet the Standards in the CPMF. The outcomes of the reporting will continue to facilitate meaningful dialogue on performance improvement among College staff and Council members and between Colleges and their broader communities, including the public, the Ministry, members, and other stakeholders.

In alignment with its commitment to transparency and collective advancement, the Ministry will develop a Summary Report which will underscore the commendable practices already established by Colleges, collective strengths, and areas for improvement. The Summary Report will emphasize the overall performance of the health regulatory system rather than individual Colleges, highlighting opportunities for mutual learning and growth.

The ministry's Summary Report will be posted in English and French and weblinks to the report will be shared with the Colleges once it is published.

Completing the CPMF Reporting Tool

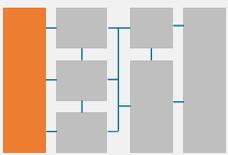

While the CPMF Reporting Tool seeks to clarify the information requested, it is not intended to direct College activities and processes or restrict the way a College fulfills its fiduciary duties. Where a term or concept is not explicitly defined in the CPMF Reporting Tool, the ministry relies on individual Colleges, as subject matter experts, to determine how a term should be appropriately interpreted given the uniqueness of the profession each College oversees.

In the spirit of continuous improvement, if the College plans to improve its actions or processes related to a respective Measure or Evidence, it is encouraged to highlight these planned activities and progress made on commitments from previous years.

There are eight pieces of Evidence highlighted within Part 1 of the Reporting Tool as 'Benchmarked Evidence'. These pieces of evidence were identified as attributes of an excellent regulator, and Colleges should meet, or work towards meeting these benchmarks. If a College does not meet, or partially meets expectations on a benchmark, it is required to provide an improvement plan that includes the steps it will follow, timelines and any barriers to implementing that benchmark. This year Colleges should report on their progress in meeting the benchmarked Evidence.

Where a College fully met Evidence in 2022 and 2023, the College may opt to respond with 'Met in 2022 and Continues to Meet in 2023'. In the instances where this is appropriate, this option appears in the dropdown menu. If that option is not there, Colleges are asked to fully respond to the Evidence or Standard. Colleges are also asked to provide additional detail (e.g., page numbers), when linking to or referencing College documents.

Part 1: Measurement Domains

		Measure: 1.1 Where possible, Council and Statutory Committee members demonstrate that they have the knowledge, skills, and commitment prior to becoming a member of Council or a Statutory Committee.
DOMAIN 1: GOVERNANCE	STANDARD 1	Required Evidence	College Response
		a. Professional members are eligible to stand for election to Council only after: i. meeting pre-defined competency and suitability criteria; and <hr/> Benchmarked Evidence <hr/>	The College fulfills this requirement: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The competency and suitability criteria are public: Choose an item. If yes, please insert a link and indicate the page number where they can be found; if not, please list criteria. In keeping with current legislative requirements, nurses are elected by their peers in regional elections. Basic requirements are in the College of Nurses of Ontario’s (CNO’s) by-laws (Section 52 – Eligibility for Election on page 46) that articulate the eligibility to run for election to CNO Council (Council). To be eligible to run for elections, nurses must <ul style="list-style-type: none"> be registered in the General or Extended Class have no revocation in the past six years have no Discipline or Fitness-to-Practise finding in the past three years complete a conflict-of-interest form (given when CNO receives the candidate’s nomination), and by submitting the form they confirm <ul style="list-style-type: none"> they have read and understood the Conduct By-Law if elected, they will behave in accordance with the Conduct By-Law they do not hold a conflicting position (set out in Sub-Articles 6.10–6.14), or if they hold a conflicting position, they will resign from that position if elected Candidates are required to include in their profiles their reflections on CNO’s purpose, and on the competencies and attributes required of Council. This information may support voters in the election process to understand CNO’s public interest role and assess whether candidates have the skills and attributes to contribute to Council. Candidates’ profiles are limited to responses to the following statements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> I want to serve on Council (CNO’s board of directors), whose only role is to uphold patient safety. As a member of Council, I would bring these skills to the board. As a member of Council, I would bring these attributes to the board. CNO continues to recommend a competency-based appointments process. CNO is concerned this standard will not go far enough to ensure good regulatory governance for these reasons:

- An election process leads to nurses on Council being perceived as representing the profession ('their electorate'), which may undermine public trust and may create confusion among Council members and the profession.
- Given a separate process, members of the public are not included in a competency-based process.
- Building the right complement of expertise and succession planning is more difficult with an election process.
- Elections also undermine the ability to ensure diversity at the Council table.

If the response is “partially” or “no”, describe the College’s plan to fully implement this measure. Outline the steps (i.e., drafting policies, consulting stakeholders, or reviewing/revising existing policies or procedures, etc.) the College will be taking, expected timelines and any barriers to implementation.

While CNO fully meets this CPMF standard, we have identified opportunities to further demonstrate excellence in this domain.

In Dec. 2023, Council approved a plan to further enhance its existing competency-based election process so Council members have the necessary competencies and attributes, and that their competencies effectively provide strategic oversight to the organization and to governing nursing in the public interest (see Dec. 2023 Council briefing package, pages 179 to 183). This approach of competency-based eligibility for the election process is based on the following principles, which were approved by Council in Sept. 2023 (see Sept. 2023 Council briefing package, pages 52 to 56):

- evidence-informed
- competency-based,
- focused on diversity, equity and inclusion,
- risk-based,
- transparent, and
- focused on ongoing quality improvement.

The approach aims to enhance the current elections process by implementing a focused self-assessment process around competencies and attributes before candidates stand for election to Council. Candidates will self-assess their competencies and attributes, including diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) competencies, using the Council-approved candidate profile. Candidate’s self-assessment results will be made available to provide information to voters about the candidate’s competencies and attributes, so the voters can make informed decisions.

This approach will apply to the 2025 election cycle, which occurs in Feb. 2025. CNO Council will evaluate this approach and make any adjustments to the 2026 election cycle. The work expected to be completed in 2024 includes

			<ul style="list-style-type: none">• an updated Council Profile, including the list of competencies and attributes required for board members and DEI competencies• consulting with legal counsel to determine whether by-law changes related to eligibility for election are required• developing the appropriate system(s) for the self-assessment process• developing communication and stakeholder engagement plans

Measure: 1.2 Council regularly assesses its effectiveness and addresses identified opportunities for improvement through ongoing education.
Required Evidence	College Response
a. Council has developed and implemented a framework to regularly evaluate the effectiveness of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. Council meetings; and ii. Council. 	The College fulfills this requirement:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Please provide the year when Framework was developed OR last updated. • Please insert a link to Framework OR link to Council meeting materials and indicate the page number where the Framework is found and was approved. • Evaluation and assessment results are discussed at public Council meeting: Choose an item. • If yes, please insert a link to the last Council meeting and indicate the page number where the most recent evaluation results have been presented and discussed. In Sept. 2022, Council approved a new Council Evaluation Policy, which set out a three-year Council review cycle, with the understanding that it would be revisited after Year 3 (see Sept. 2022 Council briefing package, pages 18 to 25). As part of the evaluation policy, a ‘pulse check’ survey is issued after each Council meeting, to identify what worked well in the meeting and what, if anything, could be improved. In March 2023, Council supported the following actions stemming from the initial evaluation of Council in Dec. 2022 (see Mar. 2023 Council briefing package, pages 137 to 147): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • engaging in facilitated dialogue about desired Council dynamics (development workshop, March 2023) • enhancing orientation (first iteration May-June 2023) • developing a governance manual (first version completed in May 2023) • continuing professional development (topics identified by evaluation) In Dec. 2023, Council was updated on the carrying out of the above priorities (see Dec. 2023, Council briefing package, pages 184 to 188). The priorities set out for the year were met and exceeded as CNO implemented several other improvement opportunities identified by the evaluation throughout the year. These included introducing a new dashboard to monitor carrying out the strategic plan and several meeting process improvements (for example, consent agenda, ensuring sufficient time for Council to discuss strategic items, improving briefing notes and developing an in-camera meeting policy). In Dec. 2023, Council also decided on priorities for 2024, including <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • developing a Council purpose and role description, as well as a Council President role description and updating the Council member role description • updating Council competency and attribute profile • updating the Council and committee Code of Conduct related to compliance • updating the Executive Committee Terms of Reference • continue updating the Council evaluation policy (pre-requisite to the next third-party evaluation of Council, scheduled in 2025)

CNO’s framework and process is modelled after the ISO31000 Risk Management Guidelines. CNO identified uncertainties through risk identification workshops with the Leadership Team, which supported the development of the first draft of a corporate Risk Register. CNO will be leveraging an ERM software platform to operationalize the next phase of the process workplan. This has been documented in CNO’s Dec. 2023 Council briefing package, page 156.

DOMAIN 3: SYSTEM PARTNER

STANDARD 5 and STANDARD 6

Measure / Required evidence: N/A	College response Colleges are requested to provide a narrative that highlights their organization’s best practices for the following two standards. An exhaustive list of interactions with every system partner that the College engaged with is not required. Colleges may wish to provide information that includes their key activities and outcomes for each best practice discussed with the ministry, or examples of system partnership that, while not specifically discussed, a College may wish to highlight as a result of dialogue.
The two standards under this domain are not assessed based on measures and evidence like other domains, as there is no ‘best practice’ regarding the execution of these two standards. Instead, Colleges will report on key activities, outcomes, and next steps that have emerged through a dialogue with the ministry. Beyond discussing what Colleges have done, the dialogue might also identify other potential areas for alignment with other Colleges and system partners.	Standard 5: The College actively engages with other health regulatory colleges and system partners to align oversight of the practice of the profession and support execution of its mandate. Recognizing that a College determines entry to practice for the profession it governs, and that it sets ongoing standards of practice for the profession it regulates and that the profession has multiple layers of oversight (e.g. by employers, different legislation, etc.), Standard 5 captures how the College works with other health regulatory colleges and other system partners to support and strengthen alignment of practice expectations, discipline processes, and quality improvement across all parts of the health system where the profession practices. In particular, a College is asked to report on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> How it has engaged other health regulatory Colleges and other system partners to strengthen the execution of its oversight mandate and aligned practice expectations? Please provide details of initiatives undertaken, how engagement has shaped the outcome of the policy/program and identify the specific changes implemented at the College (e.g., joint standards of practice, common expectations in workplace settings, communications, policies, guidance, website, etc.). Introduction: This section describes examples of how CNO engages with other health regulatory colleges and system partners to align oversight of the practice of the nursing profession and to support public protection. CNO’s Strategic Plan positions CNO to influence the broader patient care system, in part through system partner engagement. CNO continues to advance our engagement with system partners, both leveraging existing relationships and fostering the development of new relationships. Please see below for a few examples to illustrate our key successes and achievements within this 2023 reporting year. Example 1: RN Prescribing

CNO protects the public by promoting safe nursing practice. Practice standards outline the professional expectations for nurses. They inform nurses of their accountabilities and educate the public and other healthcare providers of what to expect of nurses.

Since 2020, CNO has engaged in modernizing our practice standards. In 2023, CNO developed the RN Prescribing practice standard to support safe practice by RNs with prescribing authority and associated accountabilities with this expanded scope of practice.

As part of developing this new practice standard, CNO engaged system partners to obtain diverse perspectives at nursing and system levels on the draft RN Prescribing practice standard. For example, a consultation survey was sent out to a broad range of external stakeholders, including nurses, employers, academics (colleges and universities), associations, unions and the Citizen Advisory Group. A random selection of 10,000 nurses (RPNs, RNs and NPs) and 123 stakeholder organizations were invited to participate. The survey was open from Nov. 8 to Nov. 14, 2023¹. The analysis of the survey data was provided by an external vendor. In total, we received approximately 665 completed responses from registrants (7% response rate) and 52 completed responses from stakeholders (42% response rate) for a total of 717 responses.

Overall, the feedback about the RN Prescribing practice standard was positive. Approximately 95% of the respondents felt the standard was clear and concise. Qualitative feedback was thematically analyzed, reviewed and integrated into the draft, where relevant (for example, suggestions to add examples of practice-specific legislation and clarifying some of the language).

For more information on the consultation survey, please refer to CNO's Dec. 2023, Council briefing package, pages 88 to 89.

To further support implementation of this new practice standard, CNO developed and communicated the following resources, which were largely informed by the above stakeholders:

- communicated the changes to nurses through the May, June, Nov. and Dec. issues of CNO's The Standard, a monthly digital publication
- developed an RN Prescribing FAQ to answer common questions on this topic
- shared an RN prescribing drug list to outline the medications authorized RNs can prescribe
- held consultations with nurse employers to support understanding on this scope expansion and safe implementation in practice setting by employers (conducted a total of three separate engagements in 2023).

Example 2: Nursys in Canada

CNO continues to engage with other national and international nursing regulators to advance Nursys across Canada. Nursys in Canada, an online database, will let Canadian nursing regulators and nursing regulators in the U.S. share regulatory and discipline-related information about nurses.

In 2023, CNO worked collaboratively with system partners to successfully connect Nursys in Canada with Nursys in the U.S. to improve public safety. This connection means that CNO now has shared unique identifiers in Nursys for Canadian and U.S. nurses, which enables staff at CNO and the British Columbia College of Nurses and Midwives (BCCNM) to search for a nurse that has been registered in British Columbia, Ontario or the United States. This allows CNO to automate and expedite the confirmation of an applicant coming from certain jurisdictions and enables regulatory bodies to act in real-time when needed.

The following system partners were engaged to support the implementation of this work:

- National Council of State Boards of Nursing (NCSBN)
- British Columbia College of Nurses and Midwives (BCCNM)
- Canadian Nurse Regulators Collaborative (CNRC)
- Health Canada
- Joint Provincial Nursing Committee (JPNC)

Please see below for engagement that took place in this reporting year:

- On behalf of the CNRC and Canadian Council for Practical Nurse Regulators, CNO and BCCNM submitted a funding application to Health Canada in early 2023, which was approved in May 2023. For more information on this announcement, please see Health Canada's new release.
- The Nursys Program developed and shared monthly updates to share with all nursing regulators
- The Nursys Program held two webinars in 2023 to share key information on the project and the next steps to reach the onboarding milestone
- The Nursys Program developed an onboarding guide and shared it with all regulators. The guide has all the activities and milestones necessary for successfully onboarding to Nursys and was informed by system partner input (for example, the list of onboarding activities was developed by CNO and BCCNM, reviewed and updated with input from NCSBN, and reviewed by the CEOs of all three organizations).
- The Nursys Program shared CNO's and BCCNM's Privacy Impact Assessments to assist regulators in conducting their own assessments before they start onboarding
- The Nursys Program answered questions from regulators that came in through nursyscanadainfo@cnomail.org.

Example 3: Quality Assurance and the Jurisprudence Examination Evaluations

Background:

CNO's Quality Assurance \(QA\) Program is an accountability that assures the public of nurses' commitment to continuing competence by improving their nursing practice on an ongoing basis.

CNO requires applicants to pass a Jurisprudence Examination (JE) as part of their registration process. This exam tests an applicant's knowledge and understanding of the laws, regulations, CNO by-laws, CNO practice standards and CNO guidelines that govern the nursing profession in Ontario. In July 2023, CNO launched a new exam to assess an applicants' knowledge and understanding of the professional, legal and ethical accountabilities to provide safe nursing care. The new exam was developed in collaboration with subject matter experts and consists of online learning modules and testing components designed to support learners. For more information on the new JE, please see here.

QA and JE System Launch:

In 2023, CNO conducted evaluations of the QA program and the new JE. Part of these evaluations included putting a call out for registrants to participate in User Experience Testing (UET) for the new QA platform and for the new JE.

The QA program and JE conducted UET on the new QA technology platform to evaluate the nurse and applicant experience using the new platform, to better understand the user experience. CNO recruited and engaged nurses and peer coaches to participate in the testing. The feedback from this evaluation directly informed changes and refinements to the platform as well as knowledge translation resources, such as guidance, to further support nurses and applicants using the platform when completing QA or JE requirements.

In addition to the UET, the QA Program conducted an evaluation to assess the efficiency and effectiveness of the new tools and processes used during the June 2023 QA Assessment launch and Oct. 2023 fall selection, specifically looking at Part A: Knowledge Assessment and the coaching assessment of Part B: Practice Assessment. For this evaluation, nurses who participated in QA Assessment and CNO staff were asked to participate. Analysis of this data is ongoing, and results will be reported in 2024.

Results of the evaluation were used for further program development, testing and continuous quality improvement to inform future selections.

For more information, please see the May edition of CNO's monthly newsletter.

Ongoing engagement

The above examples highlight how CNO is engaging system partners to align practice and support public protection. Engagement associated with these activities is complementary to ongoing system partner engagement. Ongoing, CNO meets with nursing associations, unions, employers and other regulatory bodies. CNO works collaboratively with these groups to discuss various regulatory issues of mutual interest. An example, in 2023, CNO continued to engage employers on how best to support Temporary Class registrants and applicants in the Supervised Practice Experience Partnership (SPEP) in their practice settings.

Also, CNO has continuous and collaborative engagement with Canadian Nurse Regulator Collaborative (CNRC), the Canadian Council of Registered Nurse Regulators (CCRNR), the Canadian Council for Practical Nurse Regulators (CCPNR), the International Nurse Regulator Collaborative (INRC), Health Professional Regulatory Organization (HPRO), the Citizen Advisory Group (CAG) and the Office of the Fairness Commissioner (OFC). In addition, in 2023 CNO continued to engage our Employer Reference Group and Academic Reference Group. Both groups offer an opportunity for discussion and collaboration on regulatory issues of importance to employers and educators.

Another example, in 2023, CNO engaged with our international partners, through the INRC, on an international labour mobility project. This project has provided valuable insights on the similarities between international jurisdictions. In addition, CNO participated in the inaugural meeting of the International Congress of Nursing Regulators. The main topic of discussion was regulation and international mobility of the nursing profession.

Standard 6: The College maintains cooperative and collaborative relationships and responds in a timely and effective manner to changing public/societal expectations.

The intent of Standard 6 is to demonstrate that a College has formed the necessary relationships with system partners to ensure that it receives and contributes information about relevant changes to public expectations. This could include both relationships where the College is asked to provide information by system partners, or where the College proactively seeks information in a timely manner.

- Please provide examples of key successes and achievements from the reporting year where the College engaged with partners, including patients/public to ensure it can respond to changing public/societal expectations (e.g., COVID-19 Pandemic, mental health, labor mobility etc.). Please also describe the matters that were discussed with each of these partners and how the information that the College obtained/provided was used to ensure the College could respond to a public/societal expectation.
- In addition to the partners it regularly interacts with, the College is asked to include information about how it identifies relevant system partners, maintains relationships so that the College is able access relevant information from partners in a timely manner, and leverages the information obtained to respond (specific examples of when and how a College responded is requested in Standard 7).

Introduction:

This section describes examples of collaborative relationships CNO has built to ensure it is responsive to changing public and societal expectations.

CNO remains committed to embracing DEI, as it continues to be embedded into all areas of our work. DEI are part of our culture and enable us to achieve the outcomes in our Strategic Plan.

Please see below for a few examples to illustrate our key successes and achievements within this reporting year.

Example 1: Workforce Census

In 2023, CNO developed our first Workforce Census for Ontario nurses, which was informed by extensive engagement and collaboration with community leaders of organizations representing Black and Indigenous nurses. For more information on the specific groups that were engaged, please see here. Changes that CNO implement based on feedback from community partners included:

- Adding a preface in the beginning of the survey to inform respondents of the survey content in recognition that asking about experiences with discrimination can introduce re-traumatization
- Providing an alternative way for respondents to self-identify as Indigenous outside of existing colonial definitions (using the IPHCC Voluntary Self-identification Tool)
- Adapting existing questions/option sets to add additional examples to enhance inclusivity (e.g., questions on race, ethnicity, nursing area of practice)

The Workforce Census (released in 2024) will provide an important snapshot of the demographic composition and experiences of Ontario’s nurses. The results from this census will provide CNO with a baseline for identifying gaps to inform our DEI activities in the future and help to measure progress for advancing more equitable and inclusive policies. Please see here for CNO’s Workforce Census Video.

For more information related to the census, please see CNO’s website.

Example 2: Proposed Amendments to the Education Requirement

CNO recognizes the ongoing health human resources (HHR) challenges faced by the nursing profession and continues to work with system partners to support the registration of new nurses to help meet the HHR needs in Ontario.

In 2023, CNO explored regulation changes to remove barriers for Internationally Educated Nurses (IENs). These changes included revising regulation 275/94 under the Nursing Act, 1991 (Registration Regulation).

CNO notified registrants and stakeholders about the proposed changes on Sept. 29, 2023. The following material was provided:

- overview of the proposed changes
- redlined version of the proposed changes
- chart giving rationale for each proposed change
- link to an online survey to provide feedback

Notice was provided through CNO’s website, social media and through The Standard, our monthly newsletter.

The following key stakeholders, also notified of the proposed changes by email, were invited to provide feedback:

- nursing regulators across Canada
- health regulators in Ontario
- Ontario academic stakeholders
- Ontario Fairness Commissioner
- nursing associations and unions in Ontario

The registrant and stakeholder consultation period ended Nov. 27, 2023. A total of 1,509 completed responses to the online survey were received between Sept. 29, 2023, and Nov. 27, 2023. Please see below for a summary of the findings.

Respondents who were in favour of the proposed changes noted that the amendments may

- help address the ongoing nursing shortage and get more nurses into the healthcare system

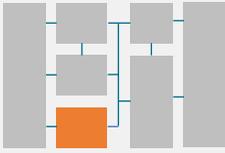

- support reducing barriers by allowing more effective and efficient processing of applications
- enable IENs to utilize their education qualifications
- be cost effective for applicants
- increase inclusivity and diversity in staff and management
- improve patient safety by ensuring nurses have the appropriate knowledge to safely practice
- support the transition process for IENs
- standardize education requirements and expectations

Respondents who were against the proposed changes raised concerns related to

- different nursing roles and capabilities between jurisdictions
- Perceived lowering the standard of nursing
- risk of illegitimate credential documents
- relying on an entry-to-practice exam
- creating a “double standard” for IENs and Canadian/Ontario grads
- one course alone would not allow for a full understanding of the healthcare system
- cost and length of the course could be barriers for some applicants
- given the number of applicants, the system may not be able to meet the demand

For more information related to the findings from this survey, please refer to CNO’s Dec. 2023, Council briefing package, pages 56 to 77.

In late 2023, CNO identified opportunities to clarify the proposed changes with some system partners where confusion had been identified. CNO’s communication and system partner engagement plan will be informed by the feedback received. In 2024, CNO is proposing changes to the regulations given the feedback received.

CNO makes publicly available its Privacy Policy, which describes the full lifecycle management (collection to disposition) of personal information (PI), personal health information (PHI) and other sensitive data it collects and is in its custody, to fulfill its obligations and activities as a regulator.

CNO makes every effort to ensure personal information we hold is accurate, complete and up to date for the purposes we collect it for. An individual's written request for access to their own personal information can be made at any time and a request can also be made to correct inaccuracies (if any). For more information, please refer to CNO's Request for Access to Personal Information Form.

CNO continues to enhance our records management capabilities and to facilitate timely access to information requests handled by the Privacy Office. For example, CNO continues to engage a third-party vendor to support digitization and scanning of records.

CNO has processes in place for evaluating its standards of practice and practice guidelines to determine whether they are appropriate or require revisions. CNO developed a process guide, which provides an overview of how standards of practice are established and maintained to protect the public interest. It includes details about

- driving factors for development of standards of practice
- principles guiding the development process
- process for revising or developing standards of practice, including monitoring and evaluation

In 2023, CNO developed a policy outlining the requirement for a five-year review cycle for all practice standards and guidelines. The policy includes sources supporting evidence-informed revisions and includes integrating DEI principles and values into practice standards.

The process for revising or developing standards of practice and practice guidelines considers the broader context of nursing practice. The purpose is to address areas of risk or potential risk to the public. Furthermore, monitoring and evaluation processes examine how changes in the broader environment influence standards and help inform when revisions or updates to standards are needed for safe client care. This ensures the standards achieve their intended purpose and that they remain relevant and appropriate to public protection over time.

CNO is vigilant in monitoring the environment to keep practice standards, guidelines and resources current. As needed, CNO has revised, retired and introduced new standards in response to changes in legislation, nursing practice, the health system, best practices in regulation and public expectations. This is demonstrated in some examples below under the Modernizing Standards Project. Additionally, CNO has an annual review process that highlights when updates or changes are required.

Modernizing Standards

CNO's Modernizing Standards project is ongoing work and reflects the evolving healthcare needs of clients and the dynamic nature of the nursing profession. The project supports carrying out CNO's Strategic Plan, by advancing CNO's strategic outcome so that nurses' conduct exemplifies understanding and integration of CNO standards for safe practice. Our practice standards are being modernized to better reflect current practice realities, public expectations and societal values.

In 2023, the Modernizing Standards project focused on the following standards for development, evaluation and revisions:

Scope of Practice

In June 2023, Council approved a new Scope of Practice standard, which focuses on the legislated scope of nursing practice and other key requirements. This work was prioritized to reflect system changes including regulatory changes that expanded the scope of nursing practice, such as RPN initiation, to support safe nursing practice in Ontario. The purpose of this standard is to outline key nursing accountabilities, when a nurse is deciding whether to perform an activity, for safe client care. The development of this new standard was also influenced by key learnings from the COVID pandemic, which demonstrated the importance of nurses being able to understand and work to their full scope of practice. Using the training and expertise of nurses more effectively is vital to making health care more accessible to clients and to help lessen the pressures on the healthcare system. This standard was also revised to reflect the current practice environment (see Jun. 2023, Council meeting minutes, page 8, and Jun. 2023, Council briefing package, pages 149 to 169).

The development of the Scope of Practice standard led to a review of existing standards, guidelines, and resources to reduce duplication and align with the objectives of a modern standard: accessible, relevant and defensible. As a result, Decisions about Procedures and Authority practice standard, the Authorizing Mechanisms guideline and RN and RPN Practice: The Client, the Nurse and the Environment guideline were retired and relevant content was integrated in the Scope of Practice standard (see Jun. 2023 Council briefing package, pages 146 to 169, and Jun. 2023, Council meeting minutes, page 8).

RN Prescribing

In response to new RN prescribing regulations, a new Registered Nurse \(RN\) Prescribing practice standard was developed and approved by CNO Council (see Dec. 2023, Council briefing package, pages 87 to 99). This standard outlines the accountabilities of RNs with prescribing authority to support nurses' and other system partners' understanding of this expanded scope of practice and associated accountabilities. It is broad, principle based and speaks to the practice expectations and accountabilities for RNs who are authorized to prescribe.

As part of CNO’s response to the RN prescribing regulations, and to ensure consistency across standards, CNO also updated the Medication practice standard, Medication practice standard, Nurse Practitioner practice standard and Scope of Practice standard along with other supporting practice resources, such as FAQs and decision-tools, in 2023.

Please see CNO’s response to 8.1b below for information about what was taken into account when reviewing this policy, including stakeholder consultation.

Code of Conduct

CNO’s revised Code of Conduct (the Code) took effect on June 5, 2023. The revision of the Code prompted a review of relevant CNO resources and led to the integration of relevant content from the Professional Standards and Ethics practice standards to reduce duplication and align with the objectives of modern standards. Thus, these two standards were retired in June 2023 (see Jun. 2023, Council briefing package, pages 146 to 149; and Jun. 2023, Council meeting minutes, page 8).

The Code introduced a new principle on DEI. In order to provide guidance and direction for members in implementing this new principle, CNO collaborated with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of BC and the BCCNM to produce the following three video learning modules that explore different aspects of the new principle:

- Inclusive and Culturally Safe Care
- Safer Healthcare Experiences
- Training and Education

For more information on the learning modules, see CNO’s webpage.

This ensures CNO manages risk to promote safe nursing practice and reduce client harm. In developing the standard, CNO engaged two external legal reviews to ensure the standard aligned with regulatory and professional conduct requirements and accurately reflected the legislation. • Current Practice Environment: CNO engaged with external stakeholders representing diverse practice settings at nursing and system levels to better understand how RN prescribing could be carried out in their setting. • Alignment with Other Health Regulatory Colleges: CNO conducted national jurisdictional scans of regulators, who have carried out RN prescribing, to inform this standard. • Expectations of the Public: Standards are developed to reflect safe nursing practice and be accessible to the public, to ensure the public also understands nurses’ new accountabilities. In developing the standard, CNO sought feedback from our CAG to give insight into the draft and identify opportunities for further resources. The RN Prescribing standard, as with all CNO standards, was developed and communicated with a focus on transparency and a client-centred approach, outlining what clients can expect from RNs with the authority to prescribe. New FAQs were developed to support knowledge translation and implementation. • Stakeholder Views and Feedback: In development of the practice standard, a consultation survey was distributed to a broad range of external stakeholders, including nurses, employers, academic institutions (colleges and universities), associations and unions, among others. The survey’s purpose was to have stakeholders give feedback on the standard and also identify potential future resources to support its application. A random selection of 10,000 nurses (RPNs, RNs and NPs) were selected along with 123 stakeholder organizations who were invited to participate. Qualitative feedback was thematically analyzed, reviewed and integrated into the draft, where relevant, including adding examples of practice-specific legislation and clarifying some of the language (see Dec. 2023, Council Dec. briefing package, pages 87 to 99). 	Yes

Other examples

Below are more examples of how CNO incorporates the listed components into development and amending of policies, standards, guidelines and other practice resources.

•Scope of Practice Standard:

- In developing the Scope of Practice standard, CNO conducted two independent legal reviews and distributed a public consultation survey to external stakeholders, including nurses, employers, academic institutions (colleges and universities), associations and unions, for input. A random selection of 16,000 nurses and 47 stakeholder organizations were invited to participate. Overall, feedback on the standard was positive, with 96% of respondents reporting the information and concepts were clear. After analysis of the findings, the feedback was incorporated into the Scope of Practice standard where appropriate.
- Also, new FAQs were developed for the Scope of Practice standard to support knowledge translation and implementation among stakeholders, based on stakeholder feedback.

•Implementation of modernized Code of Conduct (2023) — a practice standard for nurses

- CNO continues to support knowledge translation and implementation of the modernized Code, and recognizes the need to revise resources based on significant changes. For example, with retirement of the Professional Standards and Ethics practice standards, CNO recognized the need to develop additional FAQs to ensure nurses and stakeholders who relied on these standards understand how to apply the revised Code. The FAQs are available on the website, which will also be updated with future resources. Also, CNO has developed more resources and supports based on system partner feedback and engagement:
 - an introductory video that describes the key changes to the Code
 - learning modules focusing on Principle 2 of the Code (Please see more information in CNO's response to 8.1c.)
 - a webinar to help understand key features of the Code and a review of broad-based questions that helps describe how to apply the Code into practice
 - Ask Practice resources to address nurses and other stakeholder inquiries (for example, FAQ on Nursing Leadership).

•Legislative Updates for NPs' Scope of Practice

- CNO updated its website to inform NPs about federal law changes that authorize NPs to prescribe anabolic steroids for therapeutic use. It clarified, all NPs who prescribe controlled substances remain accountable to the Nurse Practitioner practice standard when prescribing and dispensing controlled drugs and substances. For more information, please see CNO's website.

			If the response is “partially” or “no”, describe the College’s plan to fully implement this measure. 	c. The College's policies, guidelines, standards and Code of Ethics should promote Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) so that these principles and values are reflected in the care provided by the registrants of the College.	The College fulfills this requirement: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Please briefly describe how the College reviews its policies, guidelines, standards and Code of Ethics to ensure that they promote Diversity, Equity and Inclusion. • Please highlight some examples of policies, guidelines, standards or the Code of Ethics where Diversity, Equity and Inclusion are reflected. As described in our response to 8.1a above, CNO uses our process guide to evaluate and amend policies, standards of practice and practice guidelines. As described above, to support knowledge translation and implementation of this principle, in 2023 CNO launched three online learning modules (see response to 8.1a for more details). RN Prescribing The draft RN Prescribing practice standard was distributed to diverse system partners representing equity-deserving groups, to provide feedback on the standard and identify future resources and supports needed. Also, in fall 2023, in anticipation of the implementation of RN prescribing, CNO initiated an equity impact assessment to consider how this expansion in RNs’ scope of practice may impact equity-deserving groups to inform implementation activities. This included an environmental scan and broad literature review. The work is expected to continue in 2024 as the project unfolds. Inclusive and Culturally Safe Care Resources CNO continues to review practice resources to ensure they reflect DEI principles and make changes as needed. In 2023, CNO updated to our inclusive and culturally safe care web-page based on feedback from stakeholders and to ensure alignment with CNO’s enhanced Code of Conduct (for more information see CNO’s webpage).	Yes Choose an item.

Measure: 9.2 Registrants continuously demonstrate they are competent and practice safely and ethically.
		c. A risk-based approach is used to ensure that currency² and other competency requirements are monitored and regularly validated (e.g., procedures are in place to verify good character, continuing education, practice hours requirements etc.).
	The College fulfills this requirement:	Yes
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Please briefly describe the currency and competency requirements registrants are required to meet. • Please briefly describe how the College identified currency and competency requirements. • Please provide the date when currency and competency requirements were last reviewed and updated. • Please briefly describe how the College monitors that registrants meet currency and competency requirements (e.g., self-declaration, audits, random audit etc.) and how frequently this is done. As part of registration requirements, applicants must prove currency (recent practice) and good character (see registration requirements on CNO's website). Recent practice is one requirement that can expire. The applicant must have practiced nursing in the last three years on the day they meet all registration requirements. If it has been more than three years, there are options to meet this requirement, including completion of a nursing refresher program that has a clinical practice component, practicing in another jurisdiction where an applicant is registered or completing the SPEP Program. For those registration requirements that expire (for example, evidence of practice, language proficiency and jurisprudence exam), there are safeguards in place: applicants can view the status of their registration requirements in the Applicant Portal, which indicates the date on which a requirement will expire; and CNO's systems track expiry dates and CNO staff, or the system, will advise applicants via messaging of required next steps, once that occurs. Applicants become eligible for registration once all requirements are met, which includes registration requirements not having expired. For a good character requirement, CNO must be satisfied the applicant will practice nursing with decency, honesty and integrity, in accordance with the law and must display an appropriately professional attitude. Applicants might be asked to send in documents about findings of guilt or professional misconduct, current investigations, inquiries, refusals of registration or proceedings for professional misconduct or other offences. To determine if an applicant could meet this requirement, CNO would use questions such as the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What is the nature and severity of the conduct? • What is the relationship of the conduct to nursing? • Is there a pattern of conduct (for example, an escalation in frequency or severity)? • Does the conduct reflect poorly on the profession? • When did the conduct occur and what were the circumstances at the time of the conduct? • How much time has elapsed since the conduct last occurred?

			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Did the applicant assume accountability and take responsibility for their actions? • Has the applicant shown evidence of remorse? Declaration of Practice In terms of registrants’ ongoing currency, CNO’s website describes the declaration of practice requirement. It is a legal requirement for registrants in the General or Extended Classes to declare, on an annual basis (as part of annual renewal), whether or not they have practiced nursing within the previous three years. For RNs and RPNs, practice includes both clinical and non-clinical practice, while, for NPs, practice must include a clinical component. Under the provisions of Ontario Regulation 275/94 (Subsection 11(9)) the Executive Director has the authority to request information from a registrant to verify the declaration. Providing false or misleading information is grounds for an investigation. Where a registrant has not practiced within the past three years or is unable to provide evidence of nursing practice in the last three years, they have the option of applying to register in the Non-Practising Class, or resigning their registration with CNO. They cannot continue to practice nursing in Ontario. Quality Assurance (QA) As part of the annual self-declaration done with Annual Membership Renewal, nurses also must declare they have met their QA requirements. CNO continues to promote the concept of engaging in QA everyday and supports this by sharing QA resources and FAQs on the CNO website. Furthermore, reporting requirements support patient safety. For example, nurses have self-reporting requirements under Regulation 275/94, including reporting a charge or a finding of guilt. CNO would assess this information to ensure there is no risk to the public. The Regulated Health Professions Act, 1991, also has reporting requirements that need to be met by nurses and organizations that employ nurses. For example, reports are required if a nurse has a condition that may prevent them from providing safe care. Again, this is assessed by CNO to see if any action is needed to keep patients safe. In 2023, CNO undertook an evaluation of the SPEP via surveys circulated to applicants, employers and preceptors who had participated in and been eligible to participate in SPEP. CNO staff who supported the program were also included. The evaluation gave applicants and system partners with an opportunity to provide feedback about their experience, the process, the tools available on the web and other areas of the SPEP. CNO’s goal is to identify any opportunities for change that further support and enhance the SPEP. The data and responses will be analyzed in 2024.

² A ‘currency requirement’ is a requirement for recent experience that demonstrates that a member’s skills or related work experience is up to date. In the context of this measure, only those currency requirements assessed as part of registration processes are included (e.g., during renewal of a certificate of registration, or at any other time).

Measure:

10.1 The College supports registrants in applying the (new/revised) standards of practice and practice guidelines applicable to their practice.

Required Evidence

College Response

a. Provide examples of how the College assists registrants in implementing required changes to standards of practice or practice guidelines (beyond communicating the existence of new standard, FAQs, or supporting documents).

Further clarification:

Colleges are encouraged to support registrants when implementing changes to standards of practice or guidelines. Such activities could include carrying out a follow-up survey on how registrants are adopting updated standards of practice and addressing identifiable gaps.

The College fulfills this requirement:

Met in 2022, continues to meet in 2023

- Please briefly describe a recent example of how the College has assisted its registrants in the uptake of a new or amended standard:
 - Name of Standard
 - Duration of period that support was provided
 - Activities undertaken to support registrants
 - % of registrants reached/participated by each activity
 - Evaluation conducted on effectiveness of support provided
- Does the College always provide this level of support: Yes
If not, please provide a brief explanation:

A recent example of how CNO has assisted its registrants in the uptake of a new or amended standard is its work in promoting and educating members and the public about the new Scope of Practice standard. For more information on this standard please see CNO's response to 8.1a and 8.1b.

The Scope of Practice standard was approved by Council in June 2023 to support safe nursing practice in Ontario through outlining key nursing accountabilities, when a nurse is deciding whether to perform an activity, for safe client care. To support registrants with implementing this standard, CNO

- conducted webinars explaining the new standard and recorded and posted one on the website as an ongoing resource. As of Feb. 2024, the video has garnered 1.8 K views. Webinars also were held in 2024
- an 'Ask Practice' question and answer, Understanding Scope of Practice and Your Nursing Accountabilities, was written to assist registrants in applying the new standard. It introduces three questions a nurse must ask to determine if they can perform an activity and gives more details on answering and interpreting those questions
- announced the approval and implementation of the Scope of Practice, through its social media channels (see CNO's response to 3.2a for more information) and through The Standard, the College's newsletter.

Other examples of CNO supporting registrants when implementing changes to standards of practice or guidelines include

- for the implementation of the new Registered Nurse (RN) Prescribing standard, CNO developed
 - an RN Prescribing Decision Tree
 - an FAQ webpage dedicated to RN Prescribing
 - a webpage explaining who can prescribe, what can be prescribed, how to become authorized to prescribe, authorized practice settings and the standard itself
- the modernized Code of Conduct went into effect on June 5, 2023 (a practice standard for nurses). CNO published a video on the modernized Code of Conduct, which has 5.3 K views as of Feb. 2024, a longer webinar that has 3.1K views as of Feb. 2024, and a webinar series on Principle 2 in the Code of Conduct (“Nurses provide inclusive and culturally safe care by practicing cultural humility”) consisting of three videos on Inclusive and Culturally Safe Care (3 K views), Safer Health Care Experiences (2.1 K views), Training and Education (1.3 K views).

For more information please see the Jun. 2023, Council briefing package, pages 141 to 146 and the Dec. 2023, Council briefing package, pages 87 to 90.

CNO identified the measures to help report on and track progress toward our Strategic Plan outcomes. Since the last report in 2022, these measures have been further refined to ensure they are appropriate for assessing the Strategic Plan. Details for each measure are included indicating whether the measure was retained, added or removed from the list provided in 2022. Outcome 1: Applicants for registration will experience processes that are evidence-informed, fair, inclusive and effective, contributing to improved public access to safe nursing care. The measures for Outcome 1 are <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) overall score from 'Applicant Experience' survey <ul style="list-style-type: none"> retained — assesses perceived fairness, inclusivity and effectiveness of the application process 2) time between receipt of application and fee, and issuance of direction and next steps (or Time to first contact for applications) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> retained — assesses effectiveness and fairness of application process 3) application processing ratio <ul style="list-style-type: none"> new — ratio of applications received versus processed measures the effectiveness of the registration process The following Outcome 1 measures (reported previously in 2022) were removed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o audit rating <ul style="list-style-type: none"> removed due to unfeasibility — scope undefined and significant changes are expected 	Yes

o fairness and transparency measure

- removed due to duplication — already captured in the ‘Applicant Experience’ survey score

o OFC risk rating

- removed due to unfeasibility — rating is not frequent enough for purposes of strategic plan

o time between applicant completion of all requirements and offer to register

- removed as not relevant — the process is already automated and performing optimally; no room for improvement

Outcome 2: Nurses’ conduct will exemplify understanding and integration of CNO standards for safe practice.

The measures for Outcome 2 are

1) results from QA assessment module

- retained — proportion of participants who satisfactorily complete the module measures understanding and integration of CNO standards

2) results from participant perception survey

- retained — perception of participants regarding their understanding of CNO standards is a proxy measure for understanding

3) results from nurse perception survey

- retained — familiarity with CNO standards is a proxy measure for understanding

4) professional conduct remediation dispositions

- new — proportion of professional conduct investigations with a remedial outcome assesses action to improve understanding of the standards of practice

The following Outcome 2 measures (reported previously in 2022) were removed:

o results from employer and public perception surveys

- removed due to unfeasibility — not measured frequently enough for purposes of strategic plan

Outcome 3: CNO will be recognized as a trusted stakeholder to nurses, employers and the public.

The measures for Outcome 3 are

1) results from registrants, employers and public perception surveys

- retained — measures stakeholder perception and awareness of CNO as an organization and its regulatory mandate

2) trust score and survey that measures different factors that contribute to trust from the perspectives of nurses, employers and the public

- retained — measures the level of trust in CNO from the perspective of stakeholders

3) social media audience growth

- new — growth in the number of social media followers measures awareness of CNO

The following Outcome 3 measures (reported previously in 2022) were removed:

- o measure trust of the complaints process
 - removed as not relevant — small sample is not representative
- o measure of registrant's awareness and perception of CNO's role
 - removed due to duplication — already captured in results from the registrant perception survey
- o usefulness of their interaction with the website
 - removed as not relevant — measures usefulness and effectiveness of CNO website, which are not necessarily proxies for trust

Part 2: Context Measures

The following tables require Colleges to provide statistical data that will provide helpful context about a College’s performance related to the standards. The context measures are non-directional, which means no conclusions can be drawn from the results in terms of whether they are ‘good’ or ‘bad’ without having a more in-depth understanding of what specifically drives those results.

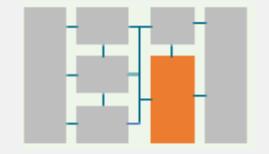

In order to facilitate consistency in reporting, a recommended method to calculate the information is provided in the companion document “Technical Specifications for Quantitative College Performance Measurement Framework Measures.” However, recognizing that at this point in time, the data may not be readily available for each College to calculate the context measure in the recommended manner (e.g., due to differences in definitions), a College can report the information in a manner that is conducive to its data infrastructure and availability.

In those instances where a College does not have the data or the ability to calculate the context measure at this point in time it should state: ‘Nil’ and indicate any plans to collect the data in the future.

Where deemed appropriate, Colleges are encouraged to provide additional information to ensure the context measure is properly contextualized to its unique situation. Finally, where a College chooses to report a context measure using a method other than the recommended method outlined in the following Technical Document, the College is asked to provide the method in order to understand how the information provided was calculated.

The ministry has also included hyperlinks of the definitions to a glossary of terms for easier navigation.

CM 1. Type and distribution of QA/QI activities and assessments used in CY 2023*		What does this information tell us? Quality assurance (QA) and Quality Improvement (QI) are critical components in ensuring that professionals provide care that is safe, effective, patient-centred and ethical. In addition, health care professionals face a number of ongoing changes that might impact how they practice (e.g., changing roles and responsibilities, changing public expectations, legislative changes). The information provided here illustrates the diversity of QA activities the College undertook in assessing the competency of its registrants and the QA and QI activities its registrants undertook to maintain competency in CY 2023. The diversity of QA/QI activities and assessments is reflective of a College's risk-based approach in executing its QA program, whereby the frequency of assessment and activities to maintain competency are informed by the risk of a registrant not acting competently. Details of how the College determined the appropriateness of its assessment component of its QA program are described or referenced by the College in Measure 10.2(a) of Standard 10.

 Registrants may be undergoing multiple QA activities over the course of the reporting period. While future iterations of the CPMF may evolve to capture the different permutations of pathways registrants may undergo as part of a College's QA Program, the requested statistical information recognizes the current limitations in data availability today and is therefore limited to type and distribution of QA/QI activities or assessments used in the reporting period.*

Additional comments for clarification (if needed)

In 2023, all nurses were accountable to reflect on their practice and develop a learning plan, but were not required to submit their learning plans to CNO unless requested by CNO when selected for QA Assessment.

The statistics are based on the registrants selected and notified to participate in QA Assessment in 2023, regardless of whether they completed the activities by Dec. 31st, 2023. These statistics were reported using the same criteria as the previous year.

*In 2023, the structure of CNO's QA Program was revised and two components were launched in QA Assessment: Part A (Knowledge) and Part B (Practice). In Part A, selected nurses are required to complete learning modules that assess regulatory knowledge and address professionalism. Part B, which includes submission of a learning plan, the Code of Conduct Activity, NP Case Example (if applicable) and remedial activities (if applicable), is a more in-depth assessment of a nurse's knowledge, skill and judgement.

Nurses selected for Part A were required to also complete Part B activities if they were non-compliant with Part A learning modules by a predetermined deadline. Nurses selected for Part B only, were not required to complete Part A activities.

Glossary

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR): Means mediation, conciliation, negotiation, or any other means of facilitating the resolution of issues in dispute.

Return to: Table 5

Contested Discipline Hearing: In a contested hearing, the College and registrant disagree on some or all of the allegations, penalty and/or costs.

Return to: Table 8

Disposal: The day upon which all relevant decisions were provided to the registrant by the College (i.e., the date the reasons are released and sent to the registrant and complainant, including both liability and penalty decisions, where relevant).

Return to: Table 5, Table 7, Table 8

Formal Complaint: A statement received by a College in writing or in another acceptable form that contains the information required by the College to initiate an investigation. This excludes complaint inquiries and other interactions with the College that do not result in a formally submitted complaint.

Return to: Table 4, Table 5

Formal Complaints withdrawn by Registrar at the request of a complainant: Any formal complaint withdrawn by the Registrar prior to any action being taken by a Panel of the ICRC, at the request of the complainant, where the Registrar believed that the withdrawal was in the public interest.

Return to: Table 5

NR: Non-reportable: Results are not shown due to < 5 cases (for both # and %). This may include 0 reported cases.

Return to: Table 1, Table 2, Table 3, Table 4, Table 5, Table 6, Table 9, Table 10

Registrar's Investigation: Under s.75(1)(a) of the Regulated Health Professions Act, 1991, (RHPA) where a Registrar believes, on reasonable and probable grounds, that a registrant has committed an act of professional misconduct or is incompetent, they can appoint an investigator which must be approved by the Inquiries, Complaints and Reports Committee (ICRC). Section 75(1)(b) of the RHPA, where the ICRC receives information about a member from the Quality Assurance Committee, it may request the Registrar to conduct an investigation. In situations where the Registrar determines that the registrant exposes, or is likely to expose, their patient to harm or injury, the Registrar can appoint an investigator immediately without ICRC approval and must inform the ICRC of the appointment within five days.

Return to: Table 4, Table 5

Revocation: Of a member or registrant's Certificate of Registration occurs where the discipline or fitness to practice committee of a health regulatory College makes an order to "revoke" the certificate which terminates the registrant's registration with the College and therefore their ability to practice the profession.

Return to: Table 10

Suspension: A suspension of a registrant's Certificate of Registration occurs for a set period of time during which the registrant is not permitted to:

- Hold themselves out as a person qualified to practice the profession in Ontario, including using restricted titles (e.g., doctor, nurse),
- Practice the profession in Ontario, or
- Perform controlled acts restricted to the profession under the Regulated Health Professions Act, 1991.

Return to: Table 10

Reprimand: A reprimand is where a registrant is required to attend publicly before a discipline panel of the College to hear the concerns that the panel has with their practice.

Return to: Table 10

Terms, Conditions and Limitations: On a Certificate of Registration are restrictions placed on a registrant's practice and are part of the Public Register posted on a health regulatory College's website.

Return to: Table 10

Uncontested Discipline Hearing: In an uncontested hearing, the College reads a statement of facts into the record which is either agreed to or uncontested by the Respondent. Subsequently, the College and the respondent may make a joint submission on penalty and costs or the College may make submissions which are uncontested by the Respondent.

Return to: Table 8

Undertaking: Is a written promise from a registrant that they will carry out certain activities or meet specified conditions requested by the College committee.

Return to: Table 10
